

IOSH SAFETY FOR EXECUTIVES & DIRECTORS

Financial Impact of Health and Safety Increasing

Since the introduction of new sentencing guidelines in 2015/16 for breaches of the Health and Safety at Work Act and its delegated legislation average fines imposed by UK courts have quadrupled and multi million pound penalties on large organisations are becoming commonplace. Can your organisation afford these uninsurable costs?

Business Leaders at Risk

We should not forget that individuals including Senior Managers are expected to have the capabilities & training to fulfil their roles competently, and should they fail to do so they may also face significant personal liability for any health and safety breaches that arise, even in cases where no injury has resulted.

Do your Leadership team fully understand the implications that failing to maintain adequate workplace health and safety standards can cause? And do they recognise the practical & pragmatic things they can do to support continuous improvement and organisational efficiency?

Virtually delivered IOSH approved training workshops

Our Safety for Executives and Directors training workshop has been approved by the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH), the world's largest and only chartered professional body for health and safety professionals. It has been developed to provide strategic level awareness of safety, health and risk management strategy, and in many organisations it has become the benchmark qualification for delivering essential health & safety knowledge to the leadership group.

Objectives

This course is designed to provide a fundamental understanding of the moral, legal and business case for proactive safety, health and risk management and its integration into holistic business management systems and procedures. This would include:

- >> Health and Safety responsibilities, accountabilities and liabilities of executives, directors and senior managers
- >> Benefits of good practice and consequences of failure
- >> Importance of health and safety integration
- >> Management systems and competence development
- >> Leading on performance and culture
- >> Importance of monitoring, review and reporting on performance
